E-Learning Feedback	Tonya Forbes	How well did the e-learning days meet the needs of students and satisfy the new state requirements for attendance days?	The e-learning days were an effective alternative to loss of instructional time due to snow days. The amount of work in the upper grades was time-consuming.	Determine with teachers if work in the junior high can be streamlined in some way among subject matters to reduce the workload.	3/20/19

Tardiness	Mrs. DuVall and teachers	What should the consequence be for chronic tardiness?	Implement a progressive tardy detention policy to include morning detention and a $25 fine for being tardy after 3 times. The fine increases $25 incrementally for each tardy. The fines will pay for teacher supervision. Tardy detentions will be held separately from behavior detentions.	Staff discussion at next staff meeting.
