Calendar	Tonya Forbes	Revisit the change in Easter break for upcoming school year based on information posted on social media.	The decision to move Easter Break next year was done in the best interests of students and Break with be the last week in March with an extended weekend over Easter.	Post school calendar on school website.	July 1, 2018
Sports PIP Hours	Paul McCue	Based on data submitted by Amy Malatt, sports hours amount to a minimum of 435 hours that need to be covered. It seems unrealistic to add that additional need for manpower to the current PIP requirements.	Check with area schools to determine if volunteers from each school could cover their own sports tables when events are held in our gym. Per Fr. Lavan, no one will be financially compensated for keeping the scorebook. A training video of how to keep the scorebook and posted to website should be created.	Discuss the idea of other schools' volunteers with Paul McCue to determine if that is a feasible solution.	May 3, 2018

Social Media	Tonya Forbes	Should the school do more in cases involving inappropriate social media posted outside school hours?	For all inappropriate social media happenings occurring outside school that do not have a direct impact on learning or could be considered illegal, parents will be directed to contact each other to resolve the misbehavior. The school should initiate an informational meeting for parents and students to discuss the proper use of social media.	Communicate change via handbook. Attend Diocesan training in August concerning cyberbullying. Use available resources to schedule a presenter for parents and students. This should be an annual event.	July 1, 2018
